A new pathway for worship leaders and Local preachers

The course aim to train worship leaders and local preachers to proclaim the love of God in Christ Jesus with confidence inspired by the Holy Spirit.

More information on the structure, assessment and aims of the new course available in the Methodist Website

Tutors and Mentors Training Opportunities

As we have already provided two sets of training dates in each district, out of which around 73 tutors and 41 Mentors have been trained.

Future Tutors/Mentors training will be provided within your District/circuit if there is demand.

If you are expecting to work with students on the course in September 2016/17, and couldn't attend any of the training days, please contact your District LP secretary.

If you would be interested in training people as tutors or mentors then there is a training the trainers day on 9th November 2016. If you have questions and are interested please call us. We are looking for people who have some experience of training adults in any setting, and who themselves are worship leaders or local preachers.

Tutors Assessment Days

There will an opportunity for the tutors those who are already involved in tutoring in the new course to get support in terms of Assessment.

After the regional moderation there will be a regional gathering with the tutors and DMLN Ministry Development officers to go through the assessment and learning from the work that is been done in order to improve confidence in marking.

Tutors Assessment Dates are

13th May 2017 | 11th November 2017 at Fulwood Methodist Church, Preston.
