

Bible Month

June 2018—Jonah

Many churches participated in Bible month 2017 exploring the book of James and there were some creative initiatives. Therefore the Methodist church has decided to team up again with Roots and the LWPT to produce materials to help you to engage with Bible Month again in 2018 this time to unpack the book of Jonah.

Following requests, there is a day in this region, to prepare preachers and small group leaders for the Bible month on

Saturday 3rd March at Knutsford Methodist Church, 10-2pm

(see the back of this leaflet for more details)

Check out the website too as some of the preparation days will be filmed and you can watch them from home nearer Bible Month.

Jonah: what is this book all about?

Saturday 3rd March 2018

- Musical performance by David Benjamin-Blower hearing all the words of the book of Jonah as words calling us to love our political enemies.
- Old Testament theologians Caroline Wickens, David Thompson and Jasmine Devadason are all intending to be involved
- and will lead some 'meaty' teaching to resource leaders so we're better resourced to teach in our churches.
- Find out more about the Bible month magazine
- Find out more about innovative ideas from around the Connexion.
